ABOUT PAGE

Let me tell you the truth...

Most people don't travel because they think flights are too expensive. But the reality is — they're just booking wrong.

I used to overpay too. Then I started learning the game and everything changed. I flew to Belize round trip for $260. I flew to Aruba round trip for $300. I've been to 49 states and 10+ countries — and I did it without breaking the bank.

I'm Nequa — your travel bestie. And in this guide I'm going to show you the exact same methods I use every single time I book a flight.

By the time you finish this you'll know how to:

- ✓ Find cheaper flights in minutes
- ✓ Stop overpaying every single time
- ✓ Travel smarter, not harder

Let's get into it, bestie. ✈️

Rule #1

Never search flights the same way twice

Here's something the airlines don't want you to know — they are literally watching you search.

Flight prices change based on your location, your search history, and demand. So if you keep searching the same flight over and over, the price goes UP. They know you're interested and they use that against you.

Here's what I do instead every single time:

- ✓ Open an Incognito window (private browser) before searching
- ✓ Or clear your cookies before searching again

That one simple switch has saved me money more times than I can count. Try it on your next search and watch the difference. You're welcome bestie! 😊

Rule #2

Use the right tool — and use it right

Not all flight search tools are created equal. My go-to is Google Flights and here's exactly how I use it to find the cheapest options fast:

1. Go to Google Flights
2. Enter your departure city
3. Leave the destination blank OR set it to flexible
4. Click Explore

This pulls up a map showing you the CHEAPEST places you can fly to right now. It's literally like a cheat code.

✈️ Pro Tip from your travel bestie: Move your dates around before booking. Shifting just 1-2 days can save you $100 or more. I do this every single time without fail.

Rule #3

Flexibility is your best friend

If you want cheap flights, you have to be willing to bend a little. The more flexible you are, the more money you save — period.

Here's what to play around with:

- ✓ Your travel dates
- ✓ Your departure airport
- ✓ Your return days

Real talk example: Flying Friday through Sunday? That's the expensive route — everyone travels then. Shift to Tuesday through Thursday and watch that price drop significantly.

I flew to Aruba round trip for $300 because I was flexible with my dates. That flexibility paid for my excursions. Think about that! 🍀

Rule #4

Let the deals come to YOU

This is the rule most people skip and it's the one that saves the most money. Stop guessing when prices will drop — set an alert and let the tools do the work for you.

Here's what I use:

- ✓ Google Flights "Track Prices" — set it and forget it
- ✓ Kayak — great for tracking multiple routes

You set the alert once and when that price drops you get notified immediately. I've snagged deals I never would have caught just by having alerts running in the background.

Work smarter not harder bestie! ✈️

Quick Checklist

Before you book ANY flight, run through this first:

- ✓ Opened Incognito mode before searching
- ✓ Checked Google Flights with flexible destination
- ✓ Moved dates around by 1-2 days to compare prices
- ✓ Checked nearby airports for cheaper options
- ✓ Set a price alert before buying
- ✓ Asked yourself — am I flexible enough to save more?

Save this page, screenshot it, write it on a sticky note — whatever you need to do. This checklist is your pre-booking routine from now on bestie! 💕
